

Lakes Region Youth Hockey
Weekend Results 2/3/08

The Lewiston Jr. Maniacs traveled to face the Fitzgerald & Nichols P.A. Mite I's in Laconia. Garrett McCarthy scored the first goal for the Lakers to tie the score in the first period, assisted by Nate Bowler. In the second period, Nate Bowler put one into the net, with an excellent assist by Nick Snyder. In the third period, Nate Bowler sent another one into the net, unassisted, giving the Lakers a 3-1 lead. The Jr. Maniacs game back with two unanswered goals in the third making it a 3-3 game. Nate Bowler lit the lamp with the game winning goal from a perfect pass sent over by Chaz Hacking. It was an exciting conclusion to a really fun game to watch. Excellent plays by Ethan Becker, Riley Nichols, Bailey DeFosses (Goalie), and Collin Sheehan.

The Shaw's Mite Lakers traveled to Conway to face off against the Mt. Washington Valley Mites. It was a good match-up with two competitive teams, but in the end, the Lakers weren't able to pull off the victory. James Buckley put the Lakers on the board with a goal early on in the first period. In the second, Brendan Hanaway added a goal to tie things up. In the third period, Alex Muthersbaugh tipped one in to keep things tied up, but Mt. Washington slipped ahead with one more goal to end in a 4-3 loss for the Lakers. Miles DeFosses was unstoppable in the net and did everything but stand on his head! Since the Lakers were short four skaters, Nikki Bronson was switched to defense where she did an amazing job helping out her team. Cole Chapeaux and Brett Burns did well and skated hard and long for their team but in the end, the Lakers couldn't beat the horn.

Picking right up where they left off a week ago, the Fitzgerald & Nichols P.A. Lakers Squirt I team overpowered the visiting Jr. Monarchs Sunday morning. Once again Brayden Harriman was spectacular in net as he posted his 3rd consecutive shut-out in the win. Offensively, the Lakers moved the puck with smart passing and were on the board early as Madi Nichols scored the first goal of the game, assisted by Andrew D'Amour who set her up with a beautiful drop pass in front of the net. The next two Lakers' goals came in the second period and were both scored by Bryce Ricker, assisted on the first by winger Jamie Gill and defenseman Nick Waring and on the second by center Caleb Drouin. Solid defensive plays were put in by Dylan Sheehan, Powell Wilson and Megan Long whose efforts limited the Jr. Monarchs quality scoring opportunities. The Lakers would net 2 more goals in the third period to seal the game. Andrew D'Amour lifted a high hard shot to beat the Jr. Monarchs' goalie clean, assisted by Bryce Ricker. Later, Ricker was high in the slot to take a nice pass from right wing Madi Nichols working hard deep in the zone which Ricker promptly buried for a hat-trick. Lakers win, 5-0.

Fays Boatyard PeeWee team played Saturday, against a well prepared White Mountain team. Although the Lakers fought hard the only goal was scored by Brandon Heimlich, unassisted in the first period. Defensemen Matt Missert, Brandon Heimlich, Kyle Johnston, and Will Mahoney gave it their all but the team was defeated 5-1. On Sunday, the team faced the Rochester II team at home in a scrimmage. Rochester had the first strike, early in the first period. In second period, Tyler Martel scored on assist from Nickolai Fernandez, and shortly after the Lakers took the lead, with a goal from Brandon Heimlich, unassisted. Sadly, the team could not answer the three goals that followed by Rochester, and the Lakers lost 2-5.

Lakes Region Coca Cola Bantams had an early morning game that the Lakers were wide awake for. A scoreless period and a half had the crowd wondering what would happen next, as the Lakers battered the Salem goalie with shot after shot. Salem took the first goal of the game, only to be answered by a Riley Tebbetts goal with an assist from Kenny Silvia. The Lakers were revved up and decided to take a 2-1 win with a Tevin Mitchell goal and David Chateaufneuf assist.

Laconia Savings Bank Bantam 1's split the weekend with a win against the Northern Cyclones and a loss against the Dover Stars. With just a couple of minutes off the clock, the defensive lines of the Cyclones couldn't stop Eric Hanover as he shot one past the goalie with an assist by Jeremy D'Amour. D'Amour then put one between the pipes with the Assist going to Ryan Davis ending the first period. At the midway point in the second period Davis unassisted hit the mark. The Lakers headed into the 3rd period with a 3 goal lead. On a snap pass from Simon Campbell, Hanover lit the lamp, followed a couple minutes later by a Campbell feed to Davis for the final goal, making it a 5-1 game for the Lakers. In their 2nd match up of the weekend the team faced the Dover Stars, going with a 3-0-0 against Dover the Lakers were hoping to make it a perfect 4-0-0, however Dover had other ideas. It was up and down the ice for the 1st period however Dover was able to put the first goal on the board to end the 1st period. From the face off at the start of the 2nd period the Lakers hit the ice hard with a perfect set up by Sarah Long to Eric Hanover who lit the boards for the 1st of his 3-goal game. Peter Mumford stole the puck from a Dover forward and skated out of the Laker zone and rocketed one into the Dover net. Going into the 3rd period it was a 3-2 game for Dover. Hanover scored two goals with assists going to Ryan Davis on both goals and Simon Campbell with one assist. Dover prevailed to take home a 5-4 win against the Lakers. Once again Jake Boardman and Alex Conway played outstanding in the net turning away many of the shots on goal.