

Lakes Region Youth Hockey
Weekend Results 2/10/08

The Shaw's Osco Squirt team traveled to Rochester for a 7-6 win against the Blackhawks. Both teams were short benched, so Lakers player Jeremiah Turner was on loan to the Blackhawks, and he received the game puck for his outstanding display of sportsmanship during the game. Evan Candage scored 2 goals, Sarah Lachappelle netted one, and Callum Bronson netted himself a hat-trick plus 1. The team went on to face the Mt. Washington squirt team and bring home a 2nd 3-2 close win. Bronson netted 2 of the 3 goals, while team-mate Jordan Audet netted the 3rd.

The Shaw's Osco Mites traveled to Wolfeboro to face off against the Back Bay II team this past Saturday. It was a nail-biter from beginning to end! Dominick Doliber opened up the game by putting one on the board for the Lakers in the first period, followed by two back-to-back goals from Alex Muthersbaugh. In the second period, the Lakers lit up the scoreboard with four goals from Joshua Holden, James Buckley, Cole Champoux and another from Dominick Doliber. In the third period, Alex Muthersbaugh added another goal for his first ever hat-trick! Near the end of the period, James Buckley tipped one last goal in to make it a final tie score of 9-9. The coaches were pleased with the great effort from all of the players. The kids really pulled together and played effectively as a team. Brett Burns worked hard in the net and made some great saves! Jackson Schor, James Buckley, Alex Muthersbaugh, and Brendan Hanaway each contributed an assist to today's game as well.

The Fitzgerald & Nichols P.A. Lakers Squirt I team took on a charged up Nashua Panthers team at Laconia Ice Arena Sunday morning and the Lakers really showed their mettle. After posting the Panthers to a 2 goal lead in the first period, Caleb Drouin put the Lakers on the board taking the puck up the ice with winger Jamie Gill. As Gill drew off the Panther defenseman, Drouin rocketed the puck past the Panther goalie. These Panthers were hungry though and tacked on 2 more unanswered goals as the Lakers, despite working hard, couldn't find the back of the net in the second period. The third period opened up with the Lakers staring at a 4-1 deficit. Rather than get down, they dug deep as a team and put together a truly special third period. Madi Nichols started the scoring for the Lakers in the third, beating the Panther goalie on an assist from center Andrew D'Amour. Fed by this spark and with the Panthers' lead now cut in half, the Lakers would never look back D'Amour then lit the lamp three times in succession for the hat trick. On the first of his three goals, he was assisted by Jonathon Child and Nick Waring. On the next, the tying goal, it was Waring again with the assist. D'Amour's third goal was an unassisted blast putting the Lakers ahead 5-4. Brayden Harriman gave the Lakers the chance to win by warding off 30 plus shots throughout the game. Jonathan Child would tack on an insurance goal for the Lakers late in the period, assisted by defenseman Dylan Sheehan, and the Lakers' would show their team character as they pulled off this remarkable come from behind victory, winning by a score of 6 to 4.

In their second game of the day Sunday, the Fitzgerald & Nichols P.A. Lakers Squirt I team battled both their game adversary (the Keene Cobras) and the flu bug as several members of the team were under the weather. Nonetheless, the Lakers again showed their moxie and played with heart all three periods. Defensively, Nick Waring, Dylan Sheehan, Powell Wilson, and Megan Long all played tough to keep the Cobras at bay. Brayden Harriman put in another solid outing between the pipes, stopping 25 of the Cobras' shots. The Cobras' goalie was also playing well at the other end of the ice and many of the Lakers' quality shots were turned away before they could find the back of the twine. Two of the Lakers' shots would beat the Cobra net minder. The first was a goal scored by Christian Karagianis, assisted by Andrew D'Amour. Then, with the Lakers' down 2-1, D'Amour would set up Madi Nichols whose goal in the second period would knot the game at 2 all where it would stay despite a dramatic see-saw battle throughout the scoreless third period. When the final buzzer sounded, the teams skated off with a hard-earned 2-2 tie.

The Fitzgerald & Nichols P.A. Mites I team traveled to Biddeford for a very fast and rough game against the Sharks. Nate Bowler lit the lamp in the first period with a great assist by Nicholas Snyder. Nicholas Snyder followed up with a goal of his own, unassisted, late in the first period. The Sharks fed heavily during the second period, bringing the Lakers to a 6 point deficit. In the third period, Bowler sent one more to the net on a nicely executed break-away. It was great to have Trevor Frederick back on the ice with the team. Bailey Defossie had some truly outstanding saves in Goal. Owen Ramsey, Nicholas Luther, and Josh Shevlin worked very hard to keep the Lakers alive with great plays, but in the end the Sharks swam away with the win. Final Score: Lakers 3, Biddeford 10.

The Shaw's Osco Lakers traveled to Hudson this past Sunday for a disappointing 9-0 loss against the Northern Cyclones Mite team. Although the Lakers were unable to score this afternoon, the coaches were really pleased by the efforts and attitudes of the Laker players. During the third period, the kids were really working well together and keeping the puck in the offensive zone. James Buckley and Alex Muthersbaugh fought hard on defense and were able to break up a lot of the Cyclones' plays. Dominick Doliber played an aggressive game and really took a lot of hits for the team. Jackson Schor was recognized as the Player of the Game for his strong defensive plays and fast attacks on the ice. Jillian Lachapelle was a strong force on the ice today and made some key plays for the Lakers. The coaches made special notice of Sam Buzzotta's improvements on the ice and Thomas Everson's determination and winning spirit.

The Lakes Region Coca Cola Bantams' played an exciting game of hockey Sunday against the Nashua Panthers logging a 2-1 win. A shift of the lines bringing Craig Jones to offense proved beneficial, as the Lakers spent a lot of time in the Panthers zone, hammering the goalie with shot after shot. Both goals are credited to Kenny Silvia, unassisted. It was a game of team play for all three periods; however, as the teams only 3 defensemen, Jeremie Wilson, Ricky Boyd and Max Desmarais held the Panthers away from the net. Strong offensive team play by Riley Tebbetts, Tevin Scrappy Mitchell, David Chateauneuf, Austin Gluyas brought the crowd to its feet several times.

Laconia Savings Bank Bantam team faced off against the Henniker Huskies in an exciting game with a final score of 3-3. The Lakers lit the lamp first and held onto a 2-0 lead to the 3rd period. Jeremy D'Amour found the mark with a nice set up pass from Peter Mumford to Ian Bastraw in the 1st period. Ryan Davis fed Connor Gillan a snap pass, who netted the 2nd goal in the 2nd period. It was 2-0 Lakers into the 3rd period, Mackenzie Hurst snagged the puck and fed it to Andy Little who slid it past the Huskies goalie for the 3rd goal, making it a 3-1 game, however the Huskies had a lot of fight left and game back with 2 unanswered goals to end the game 3-3. Eric Hanover had several attempts on net, while Simon Campbell made some smart defensive plays. Jake Boardman and Alex Conway turned away all but 3 of the Huskies goals.

www.lryha.org