Weekend Results 11/11/07

The Lakers Bantam II team faced a strong Rochester team on their home ice. It was an outstanding day of hockey, the back and forth kept spectators on the edge of their seats. With exceptional team work on the ice, it came down to the last line of defense of goalie verses goalie. The Bantam's came away splitting the points with Rochester in a Zero – Zero game.

The Bantam I team posted 4 points in the win column for the weekend, winning both of their scheduled games. In their first match up of the weekend the team welcomed the NH Jr Wildcats to the Laconia Ice Arena. It was a scoreless game until the half way point of the 3rd period when Ryan Davis rifled one past the goalie. After a quick shift change, Davis again put one between the posts with help from Ian Bastraw. With seconds left on the game clock Simon Campbell received a nice pass from Andy Little to end the game 3-0. In their second matchup of the weekend against the Mt Washington Valley team the Bantams finished with a 5-1 win. Right from the face off, Andy Little with a pass from Eric Hanover lit the lamp, followed by a pass from Ryan Davis to Ian Bastraw who hit the mark 90 seconds later. Little with help from Hanover and Connor Gillan netted the 3rd goal, while Davis on a sharp feed from Sarah Long rang up number 4. With just seconds left, Jeremy D'Amour found the sweet spot with help from Jaran Bernasconi and Mackenzie Hurst. Goalies Jake Boardman and Alex Conway faced many shots on net only allowing 1 for the weekend. Exceptional Defense by Connor Hillsgrove, Mikey Lembo, Peter Mumford, Hurst, and Long kept their opponents out of the scoring zone.

The Mite II team saw a daunting Mt Washington Valley team come into town losing 5-1. Brett Burns did a super job in net with some great saves and a shutout in the first period. Jillian Lachapelle was outstanding with some nice shots and quick moves on the ice. James Buckley had a great game, taking some nice shots and making some great plays. Alex Muthersbaugh had the Lakers only goal with a nice break away shot. There was great defense by Dominick Doliber and Joshua Holden with excellent hustle provided by Cole Champoux.

The Mites I team made their second trip this season over to Dover to play the Stars bringing home a 2-2 tie. In the first period, Chaz Hacking made a great pass to Troy Gallagher, who made an exceptional pass to Nate Bowler, who sent it to the net for the first goal of the game. Excellent plays were made by Nick Snyder, Ryan Waring, Riley Nichols, and Collin Sheehan. Garrett McCarthy scored the second goal for the Lakers in the second period with an assist by Nate Bowler. Bailey Defossie, Goalie, continues to make excellent saves for the Mites I team.

The Mite II team stayed tough for the day; however they couldn't get one by the solid Biddeford goalie. Brett Burns was hanging tough in the net today and made some great saves. He was recognized as our player of the game! Ryan Hale had some great moves on the ice and Nikki Bronson certainly "had her hustle on"! James Buckley, once again, had a great game and Harrison Parent really got a feel for his position. Sam Buzzotta and Brendan Hannaway made some key defensive plays.

The Squirt II's had an exciting day on the ice against Concord Capitals. It was a close game through the periods and Jacob Burhans turned away 30 of the 34 shots. Hard work and good team play kept the Lakers in the game right to the final buzzer.

The Lakers Squirt I team overcame a physical Jr Monarchs II team for a 5-0 victory at Tri-Town Arena. Scoring for the Lakers were Wyatt Saylor with 2 Goals, Caleb Drouin with 1, Christian Karagianis with 1 and Cody Burns with 1. The official score sheet showed no assists but the game was a complete team effort. Brayden Harrington was again solid in net chalking up yet another shut-out. Nick Waring, Powell Wilson, Dylan Sheehan, and Meghan Long fought hard along the boards and were formidable at the blue line. Andrew D'Amour, Madi Nichols, Jonathon Childs, Bryce Ricker, and Jamie Gil all moved the puck well on offense.
