Fay's Boat Yard Pee Wee II, saw a very physical White Mountain team at home on Saturday, losing 1-3. Seth Marcoux did a fantastic job in net turning away many of the shots on goal. Tyler Martel scored the lone Lakers goal for the team although strong efforts were shown by Kyle Johnston, Brian Wakefield, and Brandon Sheppard. In hostile territory on Sunday, the team went blade to blade against the York team and out skated them with a 7-3 victory. Two goals were netted by Brandon Sheppard while team mates, Matt Missert, Nikolai Fernandez, Tori Webster, Brian Wakefield, and Jeremy Bilodeau each posted a goal. Will Mahoney, Ellory Shackett, and Matt Missert, helped out goalie Seth Marcoux with strong defensive lines.

The Fitzgerald & Nichols, PA Laker Squirt I team started out a bit flat in their 6-4 loss to a strong Rochester team. They soon picked it up though and never gave up despite playing from behind all game. Madi Nichols led the scoring for the Lakers with 2 goals, assisted on the first by Caleb Drouin and assisted on the second by Wyatt Saylor. Christian Karagianis and Wyatt Saylor each netted a goal as well with Bryce Ricker and Andrew D'Amour each assisting respectively. Dylan Sheehan, Meghan Long, and Nick Waring were tenacious on defense and Jonathon Child demonstrated nice back-checking while Jamie Gill and Cody Burns hustled up and down the ice offensively all day. Powell Wilson put in a good showing, playing his first game of the year 'twixt the pipes and stopping 17 of Rochester's shots.

The Lakers Squirt II team hosted the Dover Stars Saturday, everyone played a great game. Micah Pollak scored the goal for the Lakers, her first in the season, earning her the nickname "Wraparound Micah." In their second game of the weekend it was a nail biter right to the last 3 seconds of the game when NH East was able to slip one by the goalie with 3 seconds left on the game clock. Strong defensive plays kept the Lakers to a 3 – 3 game right to the end. Jacob Burhans scored two goals, while Jermiah Freeman placed one between the pipes. NH East won 4-3.

The Fitzgerald & Nichols, PA Laker Mite I Team faced the Concord Capitals for a fun, action-packed game of excellent teamwork. In response to Concord's first goal, Lakers' Nicholas Luther tied the score, assisted by Owen Ramsey. Next, the Lakers were on top with a goal by Tyler Belser, assisted by Nick Snyder. After 2 by Concord, Nate Bowler scored to tie the game (3-3), assisted by Troy Gallagher and Collin Sheehan. It was all Lakers in the second period. Trevor Frederick scored, assisted by Nicholas Luther and Owen Ramsey. Garrett McCarthy made 2 great passes to Nate Bowler (Hat Trick) who put both pucks in the net. Collin Sheehan put 1 in the net, assisted by Riley Nichols, and Nick Snyder. Garrett McCarthy scored the Lakers only goal of the third period, assisted by Troy Gallagher. Bailey Defossie had another great day in the net with 15 great saves. In addition, great defensive plays were made by Ethan Becker, Chaz Hacking, and Ryan Waring. Final Score: Lakers 8, Concord 5.

The Lakers Mite II team sent the York team home with a 5-4 loss. Joshua Holden put the first one in for the Lakers in the first period to start everything off! Brendan Hanaway added another beauty in the second period with Alex Muthersbaugh sinking two shots back to back to end the second period. Things were all tied up in the third period 4-4, when James Buckley saved the game for the Lakers and made an amazing shot with only six seconds left in the game! Miles Defosses was recognized as the player of the game for his tough defense and quick moves on the ice. Brett Burns and Ryan Hale also played tough defense and gave a good effort to help their team skate to victory! Sunday the team faced a very tough Back Bay, Dominick Doliber was recognized as the Player of the Game for staying tough in the net all weekend and giving his best effort. Jackson Schor was quick on the ice and played some great defense. Thomas Everson also fought hard on defense and picked up the speed to help out his team. Nikki Bronson and Sam Buzzotta made some key plays to help out the Laker effort, but it just wasn't enough to pull off the win.
