

Lakes Region Youth Hockey Weekend Results Dec 2, 2007

Laconia Savings Bank Bantam Team split the weekend with a 2-1 loss against the NH Wildcats and a 6-1 win against NH Eagles. In their first game on the ice it was a goalies game through the 2nd period. The Wildcats were able to strike first near the end of the 2nd. They hit again in the 3rd period making it a 2-0 game. Late in the 3rd period a nice feed from Jaran Bernasconi to Ryan Davis netted the lone Laker goal, and they couldn't beat the clock.

In the match up of Lakers versus NH Eagles, Eric Hanover netted the 1st goal from a perfect set up by Mikey Lembo to Ryan Davis, to Hanover. Simon Campbell notched himself two goals, Evan Karagianis netted a goal with an assist to Sarah Long, and he also posted two assists, Ian Bastraw posted a goal and assist. Connor Gillan sent Bernasconi a nice pass which made its way between the posts. Jake Boardman and Alex Conway split the goalie duty and each had outstanding games between the pipes.

Good hustle from the Coca Cola Bantam's led to a 4-3 victory over NH East. The first goal of the game is credited to David Chateauneuf, with an assist by Austin Gluyas. Kenny Silvia made the second goal unassisted. Fans saw on the spot defense by Jeremie Wilson, and defender Max Desmairais fired in a goal with the assist going to Kenny Silvia and Tevin Mitchell. Breaking a tie with only 26 seconds left on the clock in the third period, Tevin "Scrappy" Mitchell made the game winning, shorthanded goal on a Gluyas assist!

Fay's Boat Yard Pee Wee A team faced the Hanover Huskies in a great game that ended 6-5 Lakers. The team had great defensive plays and sharp passes to help bring them to the win. Bradley Tardif had an outstanding game with 3 assists and 2 goals. Mandy Paine, Shayna Tomlinson and Timmy Casey helped the Lakers take the win by netting the other 4 goals.

The Dover Stars traveled to Laconia to face the Fitzgerald & Nichols PA Lakers Mites I team for the 3rd time this season, the Lakers ended the game with a 7-3 win. Garrett McCarthy had a great day scoring his first Hat Trick of this season (2 unassisted, 1 assisted by Collin Sheehan). Tyler Belser scored a nice goal in the 2nd period, assisted by Ryan Waring. Nate Bowler took three goals to the net for the Lakers, in the 2nd and 3rd periods for a Hat Trick of his own, assists by Garrett McCarthy, Troy Gallagher, and Nicholas Luther. Bailey Defossie continues to be excellent in the net as Goalie. Owen Ramsey, Riley Nichols and Nicholas Snyder had outstanding plays to help bring the Lakers to a victory.

The Shaw's Mite 2 team split the weekend with a win and a loss. Cole Champoux put forth his best effort in net, making some incredible saves and earning top recognition as the Player of the Game. Joshua Holden had the Lakers only goal and James Buckley contributed some great defense and quick moves on the ice for his team, but it wasn't enough to prevent Back Bay from closing in on another victory.

The Lakers skated their way to a 4-1 victory today, thanks to the efforts of many. Brett Burns was tough in the net, letting in only one goal the entire game! Jackson Schor was an offensive powerhouse with a hat trick, scoring two goals in the first period, and one in the second. Alex Muthersbaugh added an unassisted goal in the first period as well. Cole Champoux played great defense and worked hard getting the puck out of the zone. Thomas Everson gave good effort, getting his own rebound and firing another close shot. Sam Buzzotta had his best game of the season so far, with some great offensive moves and shots on net, earning him Player of the Game status. At the end of the second period, the score was 4-1 and the Lakers defense was able to hold them to that score to finish with a win!
