

Lakes Region Youth Hockey
Weekend Results 12/9/07

Laconia Savings Bank Bantam I team earned 14 goals over the weekend. In their first game the Lakers faced the Salem Saints with a 9-1 win, staying hot the team faced Kearsarge and brought home another 5 goals in a 5-2 game. Scoring for the weekend, Connor Gillan for 3 goals, Andy Little for two, Evan Karagianis for two, Jeremy D'Amour, Jaran Bernasconi, and Simon Campbell each for one. Postings assists for the weekend were, Ryan Davis, Sarah Long, Peter Mumford, D'Amour, Gillan, Bernasconi, and Little. Jake Boardman and Alex Conway had outstanding games in goal for the weekend.

Fay's Boat Yard Pee Wee 1's took two wins over the weekend. With the Salem Saints the Lakers finished with a 4-1 win. Great team effort by the Lakers with sharp passes, Mandi Paine, Shayna Tomlinson and Bradley Tardiff each scored with assists being posted for Hayden Maroun, Timmy Casey and Shayna Tomlinson. In their 2nd match up of the weekend the team faced the NH Junior Monarchs with a 9-2 win. They played aggressive smart hockey, great team defense and passes by everyone. Derek Lewis had an outstanding game between the pipes.

The Fitzgerald & Nichols PA, Lakers Mite I team traveled to Rochester on Saturday. The game was all Lakers until 7 minutes in the 3rd period. Trevor Frederick opened up with the first goal of the morning assisted by Nicholas Luther. Garrett McCarthy put the second goal in the net for the Lakers, assisted by Nate Bowler. The 3rd goal for the Lakers was unassisted and scored by Ryan Waring. With 3 on the board for the Lakers, Rochester struck back with 1 of their own. Nate Bowler had an unassisted goal in the 3rd period. Rochester came back to tie the game 4-4 with 19 seconds on the clock. The Lakers made several great shots on goal to try for one more, but the clock was too fast (by 2 seconds) for the Lakers to bring home the win. Josh Shevlin, Owen Ramsey, and Riley Nichols all had great plays.

The Fitzgerald & Nichols PA, Lakers Mites I traveled to Tri-Town to play the Junior Monarchs on Sunday. Nate Bowler shot 1 to the back of the net for the 1st goal of the game assisted by Nicholas Luther. Garrett McCarthy scored one for the team in the 3rd period for the Lakers, assisted by Nate Bowler. Ethan Becker, Josh Shevlin, Chaz Hacking, Riley Nichols, Troy Gallagher, and Bailey Defossie (Goalie) had an outstanding day on the ice ending in a 2-2 tie.

On a night when the Shaw's Laker Squirt I offense had trouble finding its skating legs, the Defense played a solid game bulwarked in net by Brayden Harriman who stood on his head to keep the puck out of the Lakers net at times. Supporting his effort was fine defensive play put in by Nick Waring who, together with Dylan Sheehan, provided some much need puck movement offensively as well. Powell Wilson's defensive speed and back-checking helped limit the shots on net and Meghan Long's defensive effort was hard to miss. Scoring for the Lakers were Jamie Gil popping in a nice rebound from a hard shot by defenseman Dylan Sheehan at the point, and Andrew D'Amour unassisted on a nice solo rush beating the NH East Goalie clean. The resilient NH East I team matched the Lakers offensive output goal for goal and at the final buzzer the score was tied 2-2.

Fays Boatyard PeeWee II looked sluggish in the first two periods of their game Saturday against NH East after coming off a two week break. In the first two periods NH East scored five unanswered goals. During the third period Nikolai Fernandez broke the shut out with a goal, on an assist from Matt Missert. Tyler Martel scored a second unassisted goal shortly after. Final score, a loss: 2-6.

The Lakers Shaw's Squirt II's ended their first period leading with 1 goal made by Callum Bronson in the 4-4 tie against Rochester. Everyone played their hardest with the best passing seen yet by this team. The remaining goals were scored by Jacob Burhans, Jeremiah Freeman and one more by Callum, with assists from Nicholas, Cori and Alex!